

Route: Bald Hills Road

Segment #: 1

Segment Description: From Martins Ferry Bridge at Tulley Creek Road to approximate Yurok Reservation Boundary

Begin MP: 0.0

End MP: 5.8

County: Humboldt

Road Maintenance by: Humboldt County and Yurok Tribe

Overview: This segment begins with a dramatic vista up and down the Klamath River from the historic Martins Ferry Bridge. The road immediately enters lush coniferous forest as it ascends through a series of switchbacks towards French Camp Ridge. Dramatic intermittent views of the Hoopa Valley and the Pine Creek drainage are seen through openings in the vegetation. Segment is paved and approximately 18 feet wide throughout.

Location (MP)	Resource Value(s)	Description	Comments
0.0	Scenic Cultural Natural	Klamath River views, Martins Ferry Bridge	Viewing limited to vehicle; possible overlook on 169 end of bridge
0.2 – 5.8	Scenic	Peaceful forested corridor alternates with intermittent views across Hoopa Valley; Julio Tree (a local landmark) is at MP 5.8	Viewing mainly limited to vehicle; possible pullout locations: MP 0.2 (left) MP 4.0 (right) MP 5.2 (right) MP 5.6 (right)
5.11	Cultural	Approximate Yurok Reservation Boundary	Opportunity for interpretive signage